

UNDERSTANDING SEX TRAFFICKING

In Grand Rapids, Michigan

Free and open to the public

Learn and understand how sex trafficking is impacting Grand Rapids. Both children and adult females and males are being lured in. Be part of the growing movement to end this horrific atrocity taking place right here in our community.

WHEN Tuesday Jan. 23, 2018
6:00 PM to 8:00 PM

WHERE Kroc Center
2500 Division Ave S,
Grand Rapids, MI 49507

SPECIAL SHOWING OF BREAK THE CHAIN FILM

The film chronicles two survivors of Human Trafficking - providing a detailed look at how trafficking goes unnoticed within our backyards. Kwami, a child survivor of Labor Trafficking, was enslaved for nearly five years with three other children in Ypsilanti, Michigan before anyone noticed. Debbie, a survivor of Sex Trafficking, takes us through her experience of being sold for sex around the Detroit-Area between the ages of 13 and 18.

Also Featuring

SPOKEN WORD

Rachel Gleason
Will share a poem
on the subject

VIGNETTE VIDEOS

Short stories on identifying sex trafficking

MERCHANDISE

VENDORS

CROWNED  Free

Brought to you by & support from
City of Grand Rapids Human Trafficking Work Group

Ayda
Rezaian-Nojani

